

LESSON PLAN

Name: Addis Quiterio

Title of Lesson: Modern theatre vs Greek Theatre

Grade Level: 9th grade

Lesson Purpose/Rationale/Essential Question:

Provide an overview of the main topics or central themes that will be addressed in this lesson. Describe why this topic/lesson is important for your students to understand. Articulate a connection to their everyday lives.

Prior Knowledge Required:

Reading, typing, the definition of what hamartia means and the elements of Greek theatre. Modern theatre traits as well.

Learning Standards:

HS Proficient TH:Cn11.1.I. a. Explore how cultural, global, and historic belief systems affect creative choices in a drama/theatre work.

HS Proficient TH:Re8.1.I. b. Identify and compare cultural perspectives and contexts that may influence the evaluation of a drama/theatre work

Learning Objectives:

“The learners will be able to...” State specifically what you want the students to learn or be able to do as a result of the lesson. Quality experiences give students the opportunity to create, perform and/or respond to the work of others. Objectives should be written using the revised Bloom’s Taxonomy.

(https://docs.google.com/document/d/1YHZ7IyZ0zzpZgSqEQqQWMLAPeaWOO3IiMLfQ_lmADko/edit?usp=sharing) Note: you must have at least 2 objectives, but no more than 4.

Please number the objectives.

The Learners Will Be Able to:

- 1. Develop a script using modern and Greek theatrical elements.*
- 2. Students will be able to demonstrate conflict and hamartia in a clear way using modern techniques.*

Assessment: (Formative)

The assessment will be the script that uses both elements.

Teacher Materials/Preparation:

Rubric assignment, lecture slides

Student Materials:

A laptop, google doc, google classroom, rubric assignment, lecture slides

Motivation and Anticipatory Set:

How will you initially get your students engaged in the lesson? What questions will you ask? What will you show them? Provide a detailed plan for the opening motivating moments of the lesson.

Activity/Method Title	Time	Description/Procedure
Introduction/Anticipatory Set: List the title or type of induction that will be used.	5 mins	Hello everyone! How are we doing this morning? (Quick check in with students using our fingers) does anyone want to say why you rated how you're doing with that number? Today we are going to learn about modern theatre and Greek theatre and compare and contrast them.
Transition: Does anyone have any questions before we get started?

Procedure:

Describe and, if needed, number the steps of an activity that will allow students to creatively use the new concepts and/or skills you will teach. The description of the instructional procedures should be thorough and follow a logical sequence. Clearly explain what the teacher will do and what the students will do. Make sure students understand the connection between the activity and the objectives/standards of the lesson. Do not assume anything and do not write this section in First Person. Use the format below. Note: Your lesson may include more or less than 4 activities, please adjust accordingly.

Activity/Method Title	Time	Description/Procedure
Learning Activity/ Method #1: List the title or type of activity or method that will be used (i.e. lecture, cooperative learning).	15 min	A lecture will be provided of the differences and similarities between Greek theatre and modern theatre. I will then ask questions throughout the compare and contrast such as: What specific ways have you seen modern theatre and Greek theatre to be similar? Are there any movies or tv shows with similar and different elements? What shows and in what ways? What about technical ways?

Transition: How will you move from the first learning activity to your next learning activity?
Learning Activity/ Method #2: Same as above	5 mins	I will then pull up the final slide show in which the directions of the assignment will be displayed. This will also be in google classroom. The activity that we will be doing is a modernized script using Greek and modern theatre elements. Does anyone have any questions?
Transition: We will use the rest of class time to work on this assignment. You will submit this on google classroom.
Learning Activity/ Method #3: Same as above	15 mins	A small check in in which I will ask the class how they are doing with the script. I will be walking around to ensure students are on task and to answer any questions.
Transition: If you have any questions please let me know.
Learning Activity/ Method #4: Same as above	10 mins	How are we doing on time? I will continue to walk around to answer questions.
Transition: Let's begin wrapping up. If you do not finish this you can work on it at home. It is due by tomorrow when class begins.

Closure:

How will you help students summarize the key points of the lesson to reinforce what they have learned? How will you help them use what they have learned?

Activity/Method Title	Time	Description/Procedure
Closing: List the title or type of closing activity that will be used.	1 min	Please finish this and take it for homework if you have not finished. Have a great rest of your day. If you have any questions please email me.

Assignment/Homework:

The script if not completed.

Theory and your lesson:

Aristotle is the theorist that aligns with this lesson. His findings include hamartia which are essential in completing this assignment.

Accommodations

Visual aids such as slideshows that will be allowed up for students to look at rather than having to be rushed to take notes.
