To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Addis Quiterio. I have had the privilege of working with Addis for the past three years as their Theatre Education methods professor, and throughout that time, they have consistently demonstrated themselves to be an intelligent, thoughtful, and dedicated student and emerging educator.

Addis brings a strong sense of purpose and care to their work. They are thoughtful in their written assignments and engage meaningfully with course material. In class discussions, Addis contributes ideas that are reflective and insightful, helping to deepen and extend conversations. They are well respected by their peers and professors for their professionalism, collaborative spirit, and steady commitment to growth..

Addis shows strong promise as a teacher. They bring thoughtfulness, patience, and a student-centered mindset to their approach, creating environments where learners feel supported and encouraged to engage. They are reflective in their practice and open to feedback, consistently working to refine and strengthen their teaching.

Addis Quiterio is a dedicated and capable individual who brings intelligence, care, and integrity to everything they do. I recommend them without hesitation and am confident they will be a valuable addition to any program, school, or organization.

Please feel free to contact me if you would like any additional information.

Sincerely,
